

Coming all the way from Gatlinburg, TN
to the Veterans Historical Museum, August 23rd

Midnight Run

Seth Mulder - Mandolin. Seth has toured the United States, Canada, Mexico and the United Kingdom. A North Dakota native, he now makes his home in East Tennessee. You'll see Seth singing lead and harmony as well as performing some of his original music.

Colton Powers - five string Banjo. Tennessee native, only been playing the banjo for 8 years, he has become a very accomplished musician and vocalist. You'll hear Colton playing banjo and singing lead, baritone and tenor vocals.

Ben Watlington - Guitar.

Max Etling - Upright Bass. From Plymouth Minnesota. Graduate of East Tennessee State University Bluegrass Program. Max will be playing the upright bass and singing baritone and lead vocals.

Together they create a power house of music you don't want to miss!

Doors open at 6 pm
Shows start at 7 pm

Tickets available at the Veterans Memorial Museum, Chehalis, WA or contact General Cothren at 360.520.4524 for more information.

